Our Law Enforcement Trainers Product also offers stand alone Professional Liability for Educators and Private Security Trainers. All types of criminal justice training may be covered. First responders, homeland security, court testimony, disaster preparedness, forensics, home safety, firearms handling / recertification / laboratory safety, SWAT tactics, property room rules and regulations, police tactics, breaching, and undercover work are some of the available types of training our professional liability will cover. This coverage is available with low deductibles and special pricing.

LOSS CONTROL

Loss control and risk management services specialized in the Criminal Justice and Corrections field are offered at the underwriters discretion. Additionally, BGSU offers the TEAM (Train, Educate and Manage) platform to individual clients that qualify. The TEAM platform is a customized distance learning tool based on a proprietary Learning Management System (LMS) that allows electronic tracking of completed modules. The TEAM platform provides over 100 module topics with several specifically directed toward Criminal Justice and Corrections officers. Each platform is customized with the clients logo and color scheme to offer seamless integration of training and education. With over 2.4 million users on the system and 60,000 on the TEAM platform this is a way to reduce overall training cost while leveraging technology to track individual training reports.
